C/O FLEET POST OFFICE
SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA

TOP SECRET

25X1

Dear Mr. Dulles:

Thank you for the kind expressions in your message of 9 July 1953.

I regret that time and a full schedule during my short stay in Washington did not permit my meeting you and discussing your activities in the Pacific Theater. I will look forward to seeing you when I next come to Washington.

I fully realize the importance of CIA's world-wide objectives, especially as they apply to the Pacific Theater, both in time of peace and in the event of a general emergency.

25X1

I will welcome the opportunity to meet Lt. General Cabell and Mr. Aurell, and have the opportunity to discuss CIA activities in the Pacific Theater.

You can be assured of my personal interest and support of CIA's activities. I am confident that the splendid relationship and cooperation that exists between your agency and this Command will continue.

With kindest personal regards,

Mr. Allen W. Dulles,
Director, Central Intelligence Agency,
Washington 25, D. C.
